

Contents

Introduction.....	5
I. Interrelation of social, political and economic changes	6
1. Socio-economic development of the world until 20 th century	6
2. Political, economic and social changes in the 20 th century	11
II. The role of technological progress in the development of countries in the 20th century	17
1. Technological progress in the world in the 20 th century.....	17
2. Diversity of economic development of countries of the world	21
III. Contemporary economic changes in the world in general and in Poland....	28
1. Restructuring of the economy in selected regions of the world	28
2. Restructuring of Poland's economy and its socio-economic consequences	34
IV. Issues of globalisation	38
1. Factors which influence globalisation processes.....	38
2. Globalisation in economy and society	41
V. International trade	45
1. Factors developing international trade.....	46
2. Balance of trade and payment.....	48
3. Commodity and geographical structure of international trade	49
VI. Social consequences of economic changes	52
VII. Military conflicts and socio-economic threats	57
1. Terrorism and its outcomes	57
2. Characteristics of selected military conflicts.....	60
3. Refugees: problems and solutions.....	67
4. The role of the United Nations in resolving conflicts.....	69
5. Selected socio-economic threats.....	70
VIII. Isolationism and disintegration processes	76
1. Isolationism in selected states	76
2. Examples of political and economic disintegration	77
IX. Integration processes.....	80
1. Importance of international co-operation.....	80
2. Selected international organisations.....	81
3. International co-operation at a regional and local level: Euroregions, gminas and twin cities	86
4. International political, economic and social co-operation of Poland	90

X. Conditions for and consequences of the development of world tourism and recreation	92
1. Historical conditions for the development of tourism.....	92
2. The advantages of tourism.....	93
3. Types of tourism.....	98
4. International tourism	102
5. Tourist regions of the world.....	104
6. Advantages and disadvantages of the development of tourism.....	114

XI. Tourism in Poland	119
1. Historical conditions for the development of tourism in Poland.....	119
2. Natural advantages.....	120
3. Non-natural features.....	122
4. Development of tourist infrastructure	124
5. Tourist attractions of selected geographical regions of Poland.....	124
South Baltic Coast	124
Lakelands	127
Central Polish Lowlands	132
Polish Uplands	134
Subcarpathian Depressions	137
Sudetan and Carpathian Mountains	138
6. Domestic and foreign tourist traffic in Poland.....	146
7. Poland as a tourist attraction	147
8. Importance of tourism in restructuring the economy.....	148

Bibliography	151
---------------------------	------------

Glossary	153
-----------------------	------------

The book contains annex maps:

1. Tourist regions of the world
National parks of the world	96, 97
2. Tourism and environmental protection in Poland
Cultural heritage of Poland	128, 129

Includes an additional map:

Physical Poland	160
-----------------------	-----