

Contents

ABOUT THE EDITORS.....	7
ABOUT THE WORKSHOP LEADER .....	9
INTRODUCTION .....	11
James Hindson
Fieldwork in urban areas .....	13
Kevin Alexander Salvage
Bilingual teaching and fieldwork in I.E.S Cantabria secondary school.....	22
Martijn Kaal
Human Geography in Amsterdam .....	29
Iwona Tumidajewicz
New urbanism in the U.S. Planning healthier cities and retrofitting suburbia .....	42
Adam Popielewski
Toruń waterfront – feasibility study of the regeneration process.....	51
Sebastian Tyszkowski
GIS and other visual data sources for schools .....	54
Małgorzata Byca
Differences in perception of Warsaw city centre among the students of the Meridian International School .....	58
Anna Krzemińska-Kaczyńska
Exploring American Schools TEA Program .....	63
Magdalena Ratajczak-Szczerba, Martyna Olkowska
Knowledge and practical skills taught by Geography IB Diploma Programme and Secondary School Geography Polish Programme .....	88

Magdalena Ratajczak-Szczerba
Geography in secondary schools IB syllabus vs National (old and new) syllabus – a comparative study .....	100
Iwona Piotrowska
Fieldwork projects in bilingual Geography teaching – orientation in geographical space .....	115
Iwona Piotrowska
Effect of a river valley in a town on its spatial development. The case of Poznan.....	126
Małgorzata Cichon
Valuation of contemporary urban space by youth. The Poznan case study.....	135
Aleksandra Zaparucha
London 2012 Games: East End urban regeneration scheme – workshop materials .....	143