

Contents

Lesson no	THEME	Page
Preface		5
SECTION I.	Continents and oceans	6
1	Geography in the study of world regions	6
2	Continents and oceans	9
SECTION II.	Asia – continent of contrasts	13
3	Location and environment of Asia	13
4	The oldest civilisations of Asia	17
5	Southern and eastern Asia – the rice culture	21
6	China – economic transformation in the world’s most populous country	25
7	India – a country of socio-economic contrasts	29
8	Japan – a country with a modern economy	33
9	Middle East – economic development trends	37
10	Cultural diversity of the Middle East. Military conflicts	41
11	Revision. Diversity in the socio-economic development of the countries of Asia	45
SECTION III.	Africa – environmental and socio-economic issues	49
12	Location and environment of Africa	49
13	Sahel – life and management in the driest inhabited place on the globe	53
14	Food for Africa	57
15	Diseases in Africa	61
16	Revision. Economic prospects for Africa	65
SECTION IV.	North and South America	69
17	Location and environment of North and South America	69
18	Cultural and ethnic diversity of North and South America	73
19	Causes and effects of deforestation in the Amazon Basin	77
20	Problems of the great cities of Brazil	81
21	Regional diversity in the economy of the USA	85
22	The role of the USA in the world economy	89
23	Revision. Diversity in economic development in North and South America	93

Lesson no	THEME	Page
SECTION V. Australia		97
24	Location and environment of Australia	97
25	Population of Australia	101
26	Influence of the environment on the economy of Australia	105
SECTION VI. Polar regions. The Arctic and Antarctica		109
27	Location and environment of the Arctic and Antarctica	109
28	Changes in the environment of polar regions	113
29	Revision. Australia. Polar regions: the Arctic and Antarctica	117
30	Revision. Diversity of world regions	121
Glossary		127
Geographical names, terms and people		141
Literature		155
Blank maps		156